Grants Virginia P. White, 2013-11-11 The Individual's Guide to Grants Judith B. Margolin, 1983-03-31 This book is a work of conscience It is the product of a long standing feeling of obligation on my part to write something useful for a special group of people to which you probably belong individuals who seek grants In my years as Director of the New York library of The Foundation Center each and every day I encountered numbers of individuals look ing for grant money Although I tried to be as supportive as possible in the face of the particular problems shared by this group of library users my own reaction was one of relative helplessness Simply stated most of the fund raising guides printed directories and computer files purport edly created to serve the fund raising public are of little or no use to individuals who seek funding on their own These resources are directed The Foundation Center is the independent nonprofit organization established by foun dations to provide information for the grant seeking public vii viii I PREFACE toward the nonprofit tax exempt agency which is the most common recipient of foundation corporate and government largess They are not designed to respond to the special requirements of the individual grant seeker In the applicant eligibility index the Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance defines individuals as homeowners students farmers artists scientists consumers small business persons minors refugees aliens veterans senior citizens low income persons health and educational professionals builders contractors developers handicapped persons the physically afflicted In short practically everyone qualifies Mexican Land Grants in California.
