The Metamorphosis of Greek Cuisine Nafsika Papacharalampous, 2023-11-10 This book is an ethnography of the metamorphosis of rural foods and traditional dishes and of the making of cuisine and identity in contemporary Athens In the wake of the financial crisis in Athens in the mid 2010s forgotten rural foods of the past are transformed into luxurious artisanal foods while traditional dishes appear reinvented in fine dining restaurants after decades of darkness How and why is this all happening in a city of poverty hardship and economic crisis Through sensory descriptions and thick ethnographic material it follows the Athenian affluent middle class in upscale delis and goes inside fine dining restaurant kitchens discussing the complex combination of cuisine tradition memory and identity revealing the cultural logic and social aspects of cuisine It demonstrates how cuisine emerges from very different often contradictory social spaces not only as an intellectual and aesthetic endeavour of chefs or as a revival of foods and foodways that link the country and the city but also as interlinked with embodied memories and embedded in social relations and commensality This book will be of great interest to scholars and students in Anthropology and Food Studies

Sweeney,2017-12-29 The Aesthetics of Food sets out the continuing philosophical debate about the aesthetic nature of food The debate begins with Plato s claim that only objects of sight and hearing could be beautiful consequently food as something we smell and taste could not be beautiful Plato s sceptical position has been both supported and opposed in one form or another throughout the ages This book demonstrates how the current debate has evolved and critically assesses that debate showing how it has been influenced by the changing nature of critical theory and changes in art historical paradigms Expressionism Modernism and Post modernism as well as by recent advances in neuroscience It also traces changes in our understanding of the sensory experience of food and drink from viewing taste as a simple single sense to current views on its complex multi sensory nature Particular attention is paid to recent philosophical discussion about wine whether an interest in a wine reflects only a subjective or personal preference or whether one can make objective judgments about the quality and merit of a wine Finally the book explores how the debate has been informed by changes in the cooking presenting and consuming of food for example by the appearance of the restaurant in the early nineteenth century as well as the rise of celebrity chefs Food, Culture and Identity in the Neolithic and Early Bronze Age Michael Parker Pearson,2003 Archaeology literally feeds on
