Flares Of Memory:

Flares of Memory Anita Brostoff, 2001-05-24 In a series of writing workshops at the Holocaust Center of Pittsburgh survivors who were children or teens during World War II assembled to remember the pivotal moments in which their lives were irreparably changed by the Nazis These flares of memory preserve the voices of over forty Jews from throughout Europe who experienced a history that cannot be forgotten Ninety two brief vignettes arranged both chronologically and thematically recreate the disbelief and chaos that ensued as families were separated political rights were abolished and synagogues and Jewish businesses were destroyed Survivors remember the daily humiliation the quiet heroes among their friends and the painful abandonment by neighbors as Jews were restricted to ghettos forced to don yellow stars and loaded like cattle into trains Vivid memories of hunger disease and a daily existence dependent on cruel luck provide penetrating testimonies to the ruthlessness of the Nazi killing machine yet they also bear witness to the resilience and fortitude of individual souls bombarded by evil I don't think that there will be many readers who will be able to put this book down

Hiroshima Narratives and the Politics of Memory Lisa Yoneyama, 1992 Chekhov and the Poetics of Memory Daria A. Kirjanov, 2000 Memory is one of the most pervasive and complex motifs in Anton Chekhov's prose This book clearly demonstrates that memory is not only a dominant theme but more significantly a structuring principle that shapes the poetic temporal and spatial composition of several of Chekhov's stories from 1887 to 1904 including some of his best known works such as The Bishop The Lady with a Lapdog The House with a Mezzanine and The Black Monk Chekhov and the Poetics of Memory examines various modes of memory nostalgic regenerative commemorative and traces their expression in the language of the journey prayer and artistic inspiration shedding light on the centrality of the themes of spiritual growth and moral action in Chekhov's work In considering the larger theoretical and cultural context of memory this study breaks new ground in showing the impact on Chekhov's work of the Eastern Orthodox religious tradition as well as Henri Bergson and other modernist notions of time and memory
