Eve And The New Jerusalem:

Eve and the New Jerusalem Barbara Taylor,1993 When Eve and the New Jerusalem was first published over thirty years ago it was received as a political intervention as well as a landmark historical work Barbara Taylor became the first woman to win the Isaac Deutscher Memorial Prize and the book went on to become a feminist classic As women across the globe find themselves at the sharp end of neoliberal austerity programmes discriminatory social policies and fundamentalist misogyny Eve and the New Jerusalem is as essential as it ever was Book jacket Eve and the New Jerusalem Barbara Taylor,1982

In Their Time Marlene LeGates,2001 First Published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Living in sin Ginger Frost,2013-07-19 Living in sin is the first book length study of cohabitation in nineteenth century England based on research into the lives of hundreds of couples Common law marriages did not have any legal basis so the Victorian courts had to wrestle with unions that resembled marriage in every way yet did not meet its most basic requirements The majority of those who lived in irregular unions did so because they could not marry legally Others chose not to marry from indifference from class differences or because they dissented from marriage for philosophical reasons This book looks at each motivation in turn highlighting class gender and generational differences as well as the reactions of wider kin and community Frost shows how these couples slowly widened the definition of legal marriage preparing the way for the more substantial changes of the twentieth century making this a valuable resource for all those interested in Gender and Social History From Eden to the New Jerusalem T. woman citizen in Australia today Why have Australian women appeared so rarely in public political life despite gaining the vote in 1901 Why has formal citizenship historically been analysed in primarily male terms And how have women themselves established different practices of citizenship from those of men Women as Australian Citizens addresses these questions It examines the long histories of citizenship for Australian women of various ethnic and cultural backgrounds showing how gender far from being irrelevant has been central to constructions of the concept of citizenship Hence citizenship has been masculinised and women s citizenly activities marginalised This challenging and original work problematises the concept of citizenship and the unstated assumptions infusing it The authors argue that from its earliest European origins the word citizen has acted as a term of division denoting both inclusion in and exclusion from civic power and initiating enduring negotiations over the criteria for becoming a citizen Patricia Crawford Philippa Maddern and their associate authors investigate how gender has been used as a marker and justification for inclusion and exclusion They show how women from many different backgrounds from the medieval world onwards rethought and rewrote their own citizenship and argue that the legacies of these historical debates still underlie community understandings of modern Australian citizenship The
