Between the Wind and the Water Caroline Wickham-Jones, 2014-04-30 The archaeological sites of Orkney give us an unparalleled glimpse into prehistory Inscribed as the Heart of Neolithic Orkney World Heritage Site in 1999 four great monuments the village of Skara Brae the Ring of Brodgar the Stones of Stenness and the burial mound of Maeshowe are also at the center of the archipelago's story This book looks at what makes these monuments so special Caroline Wickham Jones explores the Neolithic world in which they were built how they came to be a focus through the ages and what they mean today Picts saints Vikings antiquarians and tourists populate Orkney's past a history which is channeled through these dances of stones This new second edition replaces the highly successful and widely used first edition which sold over 1 000 copies The text has been fully updated to take account of recent discoveries and research including the now world famous site Ness of Brodgar In addition there are over thirty new images including stunning photographs of Orkney's archaeology and landscape Able Minds and Practiced Hands Sally M. current state of knowledge of early medieval sculpture in Scotland They demonstrate the unique value of this material in contributing to our understanding of the society and people that created it between 1000 to 1500 years ago Today s approaches and techniques offer new insights as well as great hope for what might be learnt from future study of familiar and new material alike The essays exemplify the ever diversifying interdisciplinary approaches that are being taken to the study of early medieval sculpture Key themes that emerge include the interdependence of conservation research and access the need for a 21st century inventory of the sculpture the breadth and value of the wide range of the research tools that now exist conservation issues including the politics of how and where sculpture should be protected and the pressing need to identify priorities for action and what is probably the most important development over the last 100 years the increase in awareness of the range of values and significances that attaches to early medieval sculpture including appreciation of context
