

THE GREAT QUOTATIONS

Compiled and edited by
George Seldes

This collection of the truly great quotations represents more than thirty years of searching and researching by George Seldes. Many great ideas are controversial. To avoid controversy, other anthologies have sacrificed and censored out some of the most provocative concepts of the ages.

With courage and conviction Mr. Seldes has compiled a vital selection of these controversial ideas — of the words and thoughts that have moved mankind.

The Great Quotations is a brilliant wellspring for all who seek to enlighten, to encourage, to persuade, or to inspire.

In these pages one is offered the great ideas of the centuries. Teachers, businessmen, lawyers, speakers, politicians, ministers, writers, scientists and serious students of the wisdom of mankind will find this book a fertile and indispensable source of hope, courage and knowledge.

It is a work which promises to become one of that limited number of source books that are the mainstay of every civilized man and woman.
