

We need no more martyrs; we need each other.

I wonder how we can act through God's love, first, when we witness someone in distress because of martyrdom?

What if we slowed down to listen to differences?

What if we asked ourselves if power was hardening our hearts to the soft God we walk with?

What would happen if we saw the lost sheep of our communal flocks and invited them in?

Perhaps, we would return to the root word of martyr; maybe we would grow in Christ's likeness even deeper as a living witness of love, instead.
