Fragments Bresson's Film Style:

Fragments Lindley Hanlon, 1986      The Films of Robert Bresson Professor Bert Cardullo, 2009-07 The Films of Robert Bresson A Casebook presents an outstanding collection of essays and interviews with this legendary auteur many of which were written by renowned directors and critics including Jean Luc Godard Susan Sontag and Francois Truffaut      Robert Bresson (Revised) Cinematheque Ontario, 1998 An examination of the French director's vision and style      Twenty-One Landmark European Films 1939-1999 Bert Cardullo, 2015-04-01 The essays in this insightful film analysis text show cover twenty one of the best European films made between the coming of World War II and the end of the twentieth century showing what makes each of them outstanding These essays are clear and readable that is sophisticated and meaty yet not overly technical or jargon heavy They will make perfect introductions to their respective films as well as important contributions to the field of film studies in general Written with university students in mind these essays cover some of the central films treated and central issues raised in today's cinema courses and provide students with practical models to help them improve their own writing and analytical skills A list of questions for discussion is included to trigger further thinking among film buffs and to help educators prepare for class The book is aimed at students teachers and cinephiles with an interest in European cinema in particular and cinema studies in general as well as at those educated readers with an interest in the practice of film analysis and criticism The only competition comes from Stanley Kauffmann's relatively brief Ten Great Films 136 pp 2012 The current work offers twenty one illustrated essays Kauffmann's book contains no images and focuses on Europe The countries represented are France Italy England Hungary Belgium Sweden Scotland Denmark Russia Spain Germany Scotland and Finland Twenty One Landmark European Films 1939-1999 overlaps with Kauffmann's book only in the case of L'Avventura though the two approach this film from vastly different angles Moreover the book provides a complete critical apparatus notes bibliographies credits and filmographies whereas Kauffmann's has none This book could be one of the primary texts for courses in film analysis to accompany a work like Timothy Corrigan's A Short Guide to Writing about Film 8th edition 2011 It would also be a suitable supplementary or secondary text in such courses as Introduction to Film or Film Appreciation Western European Cinema History of Film or Global Cinema and Film Directors or Film Style and Imagination      The Bond of the Furthest Apart Sharon Cameron, 2017-04-10 In the French filmmaker Robert Bresson's cinematography the linkage of fragmented dissimilar images challenges our assumption that we know either what things are in themselves or the infinite ways in which they are entangled The bond of Sharon Cameron's title refers to the astonishing connections found both within Bresson's films and across literary works by Tolstoy Dostoevsky and Kafka whose visionary rethinkings of experience are akin to Bresson's in their resistance to all forms of abstraction and classification that segregate aspects of reality Whether exploring Bresson's efforts to reassess the limits of human reason and will Dostoevsky's subversions of Christian conventions Tolstoy's incompatible beliefs about death or Kafka's focus on creatures neither human nor animal Cameron illuminates how the repeated juxtaposition of disparate even antithetical phenomena carves out new approaches to defining the essence of being one where the very nature of fixed categories is brought into question An innovative look at a classic French auteur and three giants of European literature The Bond of the Furthest Apart will interest scholars of literature film ethics aesthetics and anyone drawn to an experimental venture in critical thought Five French Filmmakers Bert Cardullo,2008 Five French Filmmakers Renoir Bresson Tati Truffaut Rohmer Essays and Interviews is as its title indicates a collection of essays about followed by interviews with five of France s major movie directors from the silent period the early part of Jean Renoir s career through the New Wave and beyond even to the present in the films of Eric Rohmer Most critics would agree that these five men are among the most important if not the most important in the history of French cinema which means of course that they play a significant role in the history of world cinema as well Moreover there are echoes of Renoir s work in Francois Truffaut s even as there are of Robert Bresson in Rohmer The great Jacques Tati himself is evidence of Bresson s dictum that the soundtrack invented silence for he made all of his comedies otherwise filled with silence during the sound period Five French Filmmakers then is the macrocosmic French cinema in microcosm And all the more so because this book is introduced by the seminal French theorist and critic Andre Bazin 1918 1958 who in 1957 wrote an essay translated here by me for the very first time titled Fifteen Years of French Cinema which serendipitously spans the period from Renoir s sound pictures all the way up to the start of the New Wave Bazin naturally talks about all the important directors in addition to Renoir Bresson Tati Truffaut and Rohmer working or starting their careers from 1942 to 1957 which is precisely why I have included his piece in indeed placed it at the start of Five French Filmmakers International Dictionary of Films and Filmmakers: Directors Nicholas Thomas,James Vinson,Samantha Cook,1990 Each entry contains information lists of cast and crew a select bibliography and an essay by a specialist in the field Many include a still shot International Dictionary of Films and Filmmakers Tom Pendergast,Sara Pendergast,2000 Contains over two thousand entries arranged alphabetically within four volumes that provide information about significant films actors and actresses directors and writers and production artists in North American British and West European cinematic history Includes photographs and indexes Bresson and Others Bert Cardullo,2009 A number of writers have attempted to capture Robert Bresson s style as well as his substance with such terms as minimalist austere ascetic elliptical autonomous pure even gentle Most famously Paul Schrader once called Bresson s films transcendental while Susan Sontag described them as spiritual Both these critics thus extended in anglicized form a tendency that had early been dominant in Bresson criticism in France the attempt made by such Catholic writers as Andre Bazin Henri Agel Roger Leenhardt and Amedee Ayfre to understand Bresson s work in religious terms seeing his camera as a kind of god and the material world as paradoxically a thing of the spirit That attempt in Sontag s essay led to the introduction of Bresson to the New York based avant garde of the 1960s and 1970s whose films such as Richard Serra s Hand Catching Lead 1968 for one show the influence of the French director's severe reductionist style Jean Luc Godard of course needed no such critical introduction to Robert Bresson for in his iconoclasm and integrity in his rejection of the Gallic Cinema du Papa as well as in his embrace of film as an independent art Bresson was one of the heroes of the young directors who constituted the French New Wave in the early 1960s So much so that Godard was moved to say in Cahiers du cinema in 1957 that Bresson is French cinema as Dostoyevsky is the Russian novel and Mozart is German music The result is that Bresson has undeniably influenced a slew of contemporary European filmmakers including Chantal Akerman Olivier Assayas Laurent Cantet Alain Cavalier Jean Pierre and Luc Dardenne Claire Denis Jacques Doillon Bruno Dumont Michael Haneke Benoit Jacquot and Maurice Pialat not to speak of his influence on Asian and American cinema Bresson and Others Spiritual Style in the Cinema is an attempt to document this influence through essays on fifteen international directors who followed in Bresson's wake who in fact may have influenced him Carl Dreyer or who contemporaneously worked veins similar to those found in Bresson's films Ingmar Bergman Yasujiro Ozu These essays are preceded by an introduction to the cinema of Robert Bresson and followed by film credits a bibliography of criticism and an index The subject of Bresson and Others then may specifically be Bressonian cinema but in a general sense it could also be said to be spirit and matter or film and faith Cinema
